overview

https://actip.com.vn/overview/overview-a21.html

Not like some firms specialized in general law and others in intellectual property alone, our litigation Teams at ACTIP Law Firm are actively and effectively supported and assisted by all skills together of general law, intellectual property law and technical backgrounds in coordination with specialized firms as subsidiary companies of ACTIP Corporation that each of them are specified in only one intellectual property. The combination of these skills and backgrounds allows our Corporation to utilize the most effective and efficient measures to fully protect client’s intellectual property rights and to defend clients against invasion or assertions of intellectual property rights by others. This brings apart from general law practice firms as well as from intellectual property firms. At ACTIP Corporation, we are duly aware of the expense burden of litigation proceedings, and therefore, we shall resort the litigation only when amicable negotiation and/or cease-and-desist letters measures can not be engaged. However, in case of taking the litigation that is necessary to protect our client’s intellectual property rights and business activities, we have full power and capacity to provide our client with best solution at cost-effective.
The best counsel and representation in litigation at ACTIP is not to provide our clients with the pages on what the legislation says, but are specific, simple and effective solution to case by case that achieves client’s actually commercial aims. In litigation, we present each client for each case in a personalized manner to have an approach in line with our client’s needs and goals. We use our intellectual creativity to simplify complexity and provide clear cut solutions and we have our broad and deep patent technical expertise as well as intelligently experienced trademark attorneys doing so.

ACTIP Corporation · © 2001 - 2013