practice

Tran Anh Hong specializes in trademark application, clearance, due diligence, licensing, counseling and opinions. Her experience as a research analyst conducting registration and availability searches is demonstrable. She regularly renders reliable and cutting-edge opinions on availability and the registration of trademark based on both relative and absolute grounds. Her analysis, research reports, and advice anticipate all potential situations in the trademark examination procedure. Ms. Hong is experienced in handling litigation, responses, appeals, oppositions and cancellations at the National Office of Intellectual Property of Vietnam. She is also experienced in the filing and processing of trademark applications in Laos, Cambodia and Myanmar.

Tran Anh Hong is a trademark attorney in the international Trademark Department of ACTIP IP Limited and also a lawyer of ACTIP Law Firm.

experiences

Prior to joining ACTIP IP Limited in 2012, Hong served as a trademark attorney and research analyst at Ageless IP Attorneys & Consultants for three years. During that time, she acquired experience conducting and analyzing trademark searches, and by processing thousands of trademark applications and trademark litigations.
