ACTIP Corporation

Privacy policy

https://actip.com.vn/privacy-policy-c67.html

Privacy Policy

You do not have to provide any information to make general use of the ACTIP Corporation's website, www.actip.com.vn. If you elect to subscribe to our newsletter, firm news or client alerts, we require limited personal information, including your name, e-mail address and other contact information, to deliver our firm communications to you. We may monitor the pages that users visit on this website to better understand what information is of value and how we can improve our site design for the ease of users. We may track IP addresses and site usage for system administration purposes. We do not combine IP addresses with any of your personally identifiable information.

Unsubscribe and Updates

At any time, users may opt out of receiving future mailings. We may use third parties to provide specific services to you, but those third parties will be allowed to use your information only to provide the services that you have requested. Please email info@actip.com.vn to unsubscribe from mailings and put Unsubscribe in the subject line. To update or correct your personal information, please email info@actip.com.vn and put Update in the subject line.